

ADR Interview Assignment

Please interview someone else who has been involved in a conflict in the last three months. Remember to use the interviewing skills you have learned and practice your active listening. Please type up your answers to the following questions. Your response should be 1-2 pages double-spaced and is due in class on September 26, 2017.

1. What was the conflict about?
2. Could this have been resolved using "law"?
3. What does the person wish they had done differently?
4. What lessons did they learn?

And, personally, reflect on the following:

1. What did you learn from this interview?
2. Over what item or in what context do you think you will negotiate in the next year? (apartment, car, family, etc?)
3. What worries you most about this negotiation?
4. What lessons do you hope to remember?
